Mental Man or (How Love Saved Me From The Jehovah's Witnesses) Charlie Mathews
I'm Charlie Mathews, and this is my true story of how love saved me from the Jehovah's Witnesses.

I met my future wife while working at a psychiatric hospital. My problem was that I had been promised in marriage to a person who like my parent's, was a Jehovah's Witness.

This novel chronicles my journey to liberation, and reveals what I discovered about a religion I had been raised to call, "The Truth".

Spoiler alert - in the end I get out of the asylum of the Jehovah's Witnesses, and I marry the girl I had fallen in love with. Yet the tactics and coercion documented in this book - all of which are known and used by the Witnesses well trained clergy - almost stopped us. Real life turns out to be stranger than fiction.

All names and locations have been changed to protect the innocent, and the guilty.
