Oh, the trouble these tell-all women find themselves tangled in, all due to their unconditional love and eternal devotion to the masculine members of the household they most adore and are held ultimately responsible for.

The sudden arising of an extraordinary situation necessitates the most immediate and taboo handling.

Only one person can come to his rescue and relieve Tommy's great burden, taking care of his most urgent needs: the one responsible for caring for him and best equipped for emptying and being a receptacle for his overproducing anatomy.

Can I Cuddle Too?

Caught in the act of intimacy with her new husband, she cannot possibly guess how much damage the scene will cause to an impressionable young mind or how she'll be forced to address it.

David just wants to love her and be loved in return. And when her explanations and gentle corrections go ignored, there's only one way to deal with his growing need and hardening difficulty at comprehension. A hands-on approach is the only way David will learn.

It's Perfectly Natural

It can't be wrong when it feels so natural.

She doesn't have to whisper nurturing words in Joel's ear, notice his physical reactions, handle them with loving care, match his urging motions and movements with her own, and join him in a sleepy, hushed succession of actions leading them both to the brink of physical fulfillment and beyond.

But she does. And now, neither of them can take those moments back.
