WetWork: Dark Man Case Files, Episode 2 Cadence Denton

WetWork, Dark Man Case Files, Episode 2 is a gritty, action-packed romantic serial (25k). Filled with pulsing passion and heart pounding intrigue, it is the second episode in this hot, new series by author, Cadence Denton. Each installment ends in a cliffhanger.

Just once Dark Man would like to go a day without having to dodge bullets. Just freaking once. However, since Angel crash-landed in his life, that's all he's been doing.

Angel feels pulled in opposite directions. On the one hand, she wants to admit the truth to DM, but on the other, she knows she must remain loyal to Damien, her boss and DM's identical twin. What troubles her most is can she trust Damien or will he put her head on the chopping block? Then there's one small problem. She's attracted to both men.

The leader of the super-secret Guild, Damien has cut all ties with his estranged brother. Or has he? One thing DM knows for certain, if Damien is stirring this pot then it's poisonous.

When the Department and Chernyy start to doubt their agent's loyalty, then Dark Man and Angel have no choice but to trust each other and hope their skills will keep them alive.

Episode 3 is now available. Look for the exciting series conclusion in Episode 4, now available.

? I started this story at bedtime and read late into the night so I could finish it in one reading. It was that intriguing.
