She could be your next president! How well do you know Hillary Rodham Clinton?

Hillary was ferociously ambitious from early childhood, filled with intelligence and boundless energy.

You might not realize some things about the younger Hillary, so much has been clouded by modern accomplishments. She was a devoted Girl Scout. Did you already know that? Can you picture her playing football with the boys? Can you imagine her frustration when her dream of becoming an astronaut was crushed in a letter from NASA? Can you imagine her as an intern for the U.S. House Republican Conference or working in the campaign of Senator Barry Goldwater? Can you picture the elegant Hillary you see on television working as a dishwasher or in a salmon processing plant? You may have thought you knew Hillary Rodham Clinton, but maybe there are some things you don't know, but should. This book is intended to quickly give you insights into the person who may become your next President. Will she have your vote? Or, will you be working against her candidacy? Know the facts before you decide.

By reading Who Is Hillary Rodham Clinton? you will learn:

- Why she chose to attend Yale Law School instead of Harvard. Hint: It wasn't her grades!
- Her early volunteer activities while in law school.
- Her early involvement with Democrat studies of immigrant workers.
- Her work in the campaign of Democrat Senatorial candidate Joseph Duffy.
- Her early dating with Bill Clinton and his family's reaction to her. Their mutual work in the George McGovern presidential race.
- Her legal internship in California.
- Her graduation from Yale and her rejection of Bill's first proposal.
- Her teaching at the University of Arkansas School of Law.
- Her work with children's issues and organizations.
- Becoming the first lady of the state of Arkansas, twice!
- Her appointment to the board of the Legal Services Corporation by President Jimmy Carter.
- Her partnership in the Rose Law Firm.
- Her membership on many professional boards.
- Her role as a unique first lady of the United States.
- How she handled the Clinton scandals, both her own and Bill's.
- Her service as a US Senator from New York, presidential candidate, and Secretary of State.

- Her current campaign for the Democratic nomination for President of the United States.

There's a lot to know about a woman like Hillary Clinton. Her life has been a whirlwind of activity and association with some of the most publicized events of past decades. The woman described by her closest friends is often very different from those presented by the media. Her ambitions have always been clear, her strategies sometimes conflicted, but her determination unchanging. Some claim she has no accomplishments, but she certainly has a massive resume of offices and involvement in key issues over an extended period of time. What do you think? Does she have your vote or not?
