Savannah Harris has always felt like she never quite fit in. Like something was off. Something was missing. Yet, she doesn't know what that missing piece is. Will going far away to college allow her to finally figure out who she really is? Or is the answer closer to home? Maggie Anderson has made some mistakes in her life. She doesn't deny that. But what can she do now to fix those mistakes of the past? Will she be able to make amends and create a better, happier, more peaceful future for her and her family? Or is it too late? This is a novel about forgiveness, understanding, and figuring out who you really are.
