There's A Thug In My Life: Shanice and Money Shantay

America's favorite power couple is back!

Shanice and Money are back and having proved that their love is here to stay, nothing is a fairy tale. Shanice battles between her mind and her heart. When it comes to Money, no one else compares to him. Sometimes she even puts him first over her own happiness. Somewhere in between her craziness she finds her own self peace, but she still has ties connecting back to Money. She is carrying his unborn child. She had always wanted to be the one to carry his child but it's under different circumstances that she didn't plan.

Money's career has taken off to new dimensions. He's a famous rapper and his timing couldn't be any better. His time is wrapped in his career and he can't focus his full attention on Shanice like she wants him to. His intentions are to never push her away but there's money to be made. Sometimes he have to chose the road and his career over Shanice he just hopes that she understands that. The only problem is that Money is slowly losing himself. He's not the same man he thought he was when he looked in the mirror. After brutally murdering his brother, Bangga, he faces the aftermath.

Will groupie tales bring drama to Shanice and Money's doorsteps? Will Shanice remain Queen and hold him down like she promised?

Author Shantay brings to you the highly anticipated spinoff to Every Girl Needs A Thug. You will see that a thug just needs a ridah to hold it down when he's gone.
