Tolkien Studies: An Annual Scholarly Review, Volume V 2008

From the Editor's Introduction: This is the fifth issue of Tolkien Studies, a refereed journal dedicated to the scholarly study of the works of J.R.R. Tolkien. Tolkien Studies is the first academic journal solely devoted to Tolkien. As editors, our goal is to publish excellent scholarship on Tolkien as well as to gather useful research information, reviews, notes, documents and bibliographical material. In this issue we are pleased to re-publish two items by Tolkien: "Chaucer as a Philologist: The Reeve's Tale", a paper originally read at the 16 May 1931 meeting in Oxford of the Philological Society and subsequently published in the Transactions of the Philological Society for 1934; and the text of the rare pamphlet version of The Reeve's Tale prepared by Tolkien for the Oxford "Summer Diversions" of 1939. For the former, Christopher Tolkien has kindly made available to us the marginal notes and corrections written by his father into his own copies of the original publication.
