Always Her (Lesbian Romance) Alexandra Delancey

Back at high school, Jack was the sexy, confident tomboy who always had a girlfriend, while Elise was the mainstream straight chick, who was never seen without her girly clique. But Elise had a secret yearning that she kept all to herself.

Four years later, Elise is at college far away from home. Her father has died and she wants to live a life that would make him happy. But when she bumps into Jack one night, all of her old feelings are reignited, and she's not sure if she can keep them hidden away this time.

Always Her is a 29,000 word lesbian coming-of-age romance.
