Crazy Little Thing Called Love (West Brothers Series #1) Jess Bryant

Everyone in Fate, Texas knows that Bluebell Carter has always been a little bit crazy. There was that time she colored her hair pink and the time she keyed her boyfriend's car not to mention how she up and left town and her daddy in the dust ten years ago. Rolling back home in an ugly orange bridesmaid dress was not the reappearance she'd ever planned to make and staying in town was the last thing she ever thought possible. Then again, being in Texas does crazy things to her brain (maybe it's the heat?) because before she can say "bless your heart" she finds herself tangled up with a handsome, hard-muscled cowboy.

Zach West earned his hard body the old fashioned way – lots of hard work on hard Texas land. He's spent his life playing the role of responsible West brother, the oldest, the protector and guardian. His father's death left him to care for two younger brothers, a grieving mother and a ranch. He's had enough of caring for other people to last a lifetime and zero plans to add a woman to that list but Bluebell has a way of driving him nuts that's impossible to resist. He dreams about her long blonde hair and even longer legs. She's pretty enough to drive a man to drink, to sin... but to love? Now that's just crazy.
