Michael Gresham: Secrets Girls Keep (Michael Gresham Legal Thriller Series Book 2) John Ellsworth
What if you invited a young man into your guest room...only to find out he had killed someone.

Michael Gresham is a criminal attorney whose priest has fathered a son. The boy is now seventeen, acting-out, and arrested for first-degree murder. The priest asks Michael to take his son into his home so he can be released on bail. Michael and his wife agree and the boy, with his snake and mice, moves in.

One young client who looks more guilty with each new death...

The new houseguest gets questioned by the police for yet a second murder. Michael Gresham and his wife become uneasy and, when the young man begins acting out, they finally move him out. The snake and mice move out with him.

One courtroom thriller that curls around and surprises even the most keen readers...

A legal thriller sure to satisfy the most demanding readers of legal fiction and lawyer novels.
