The Prosecution and Defense of Peacekeepers Under International Criminal Law (International and Comparative Criminal Law Series) Geert-Jan Alexander Knoops

With the subjection to ICC prosecution since the discontinuation of Security Council Resolutions 1422-1487 in June 2004, the ever important topic of international peacekeeping is poised to enter a new dimension. This is the first comprehensive study on the international judicial implications of prosecution of international peacekeepers and members of military crisis operations under the principles of international criminal law and especially those of the International Criminal Court (ICC).
