Democracy, Ecological Integrity and International Law J. Ronald Engel, Laura Westra, Klaus Bosselmann

Democracy, Ecological Integrity and International Law is the latest product of research by the Global Ecological Integrity Group, an organisation that has been meeting annually since 1992 to discuss scientific, philosophical, political and legal aspects of ecological integrity. This collection examines various aspects of governance from the standpoint of integrity: from democracy, to forms of Native governance, from globalization and neocolonialism to specific human rights to food, water and climate.
