What I Want (Rules and Consequences Book 2) Kiara Ann

Elle has big plans for Hunter's birthday party, but first she has to get everything ready in time the day before. Instead she decides to tease her husband while he is at work and she's out shopping for a new dress. Just how worked up can Hunter get while watching his wife in the dressing room from across the street?

All she can think about is how he took control after the last time he caught her breaking one of their rules, and she wants him to take control and use her again.

How far can she push him this time, when she decides to break their biggest rule. Will Elle become addicted to being dominated by her husband?
