Gene Rickman is on his way to the Lake District to spend the summer with friends. It isn't that he doesn't enjoy the experience. He just knows exactly how the vacation will go. Alicia, his best friend's wife, will spend it trying to set him up with her well to do single friends, determined that he'll feel better about his divorce if he has someone new. But Gene doesn't want the women his friend keeps trying to shove at him, and when he meets dark and willing Ayana Gordon on the train from London, he finds a passion he knows none of Alicia's well-bred friends will ever have.
