Survival Communication: How to Communicate When the World Goes Silent Kevin Davis

How would you communicate with your family if communications go down?

How would you get help?

What if you were in a wide-scale disaster like a hurricane and no government was around to help?

What if the power grid went down?

Your cell phone will be useless.

There are ways to communicate, however.

This short, no fluff guide will reveal how to communicate when the world as we know it goes silent.
