A Down-Home Country Christmas: (A Whisper Horse Novella) Nancy Herkness

Come to the mountains of West Virginia, for a heartwarming tale of romance and Christmas magic!

After escaping an abusive marriage, Holly builds a haven of security for herself and her two young daughters. She's helped along by police captain Robbie McGraw, who stood by her through the worst. Now he shows a different kind of interest, one that thrills Holly, even as she questions the wisdom of trusting another man so soon.

But Robbie is on the brink of fulfilling a dream—one that will send him out of the mountain town of Sanctuary, West Virginia, and away from the allure of Holly's warm spirit and tempting lips.

A wily little Christmas donkey and the magic of the holidays prove to Holly and Robbie that the courage to love can make dreams come true.

Note: This is a novella which means the length is about one-third that of my Whisper Horse novels. It is a complete story, so you do not have to read any other books to enjoy it. However, it is fun to read the other Whisper Horse novels because you will see the same characters in them.
