Looking after a dog is one thing, but looking after a dead dog is a different matter altogether, especially for a stranger in London.

When a waitress from a Cornish fish restaurant lands an audition for a West End show, she can't believe her luck. The only catch is that she has to look after a pet dog in exchange for board.

She soon finds herself trying to juggle auditions, the demise of a long-term relationship and a blossoming fling, all whilst hiding a sinister secret concealed within her suitcase.

A novella by number 1 bestselling humorous fiction author, Rosen Trevithick. ~ 15,000 words.
