The preacher, his life and work (The Lyman Beecher lectures on preaching, Yale university) John Henry Jowett

His Life and Work THE CALL TO BE A PREACHERS eparated unto the Gospel of God In the course of these lectures I am to speak on the general theme of The Preacher: his life and work. There is little or no need of introduction. The only prefatory word I wish to offer is this. I have been in the Christian ministry for over twenty years. I love my calling. I have a glowing delight in its services. I am conscious of no distractions in the shape of any competitors for my strength and allegiance.
