War Games: Chess strategy guide Mihail Grovanovsky

Chess is really a very grueling and exciting strategy game. As you may have already known, the board game simulates a battle between two armies, whose goals are to capture the enemy army's king using predefined moves for each chess piece—each piece represents a unit in the player's army.

Learning the principles of the pieces, their movements, and timeline of the game are all variables in an adequate strategy. The best strategies are ones that change depending on your opponent's moves.
