A teenage girl who may be a pathological liar...

A mother who may be addicted to illicit thrills...

A family on the brink of self destruction...

Bad Girl, Real Time is a fast-paced novel about a girl who wants her normal life back?and will do anything to get it. It will appeal to fans of Cruel Intentions and Gossip Girl.

Book description:

Fifteen-year-old Elle is tired of being invisible, and she'll do anything to be noticed. She's trying out for the gymnastics team, and she's going to make it?even if she has to starve herself. She's started a blog, and she's going to have thousands of followers?even if she has to tell outrageous lies. And she's going to make her estranged father pay attention?even if she has to stalk him at the house he bought for his new family.

But Elle's mother is spoiling all her plans. She's staying out all day and all night, leaving Elle to care for Gruber, her five-year-old autistic brother. Elle, worried that her mother could have a drug problem or worse, is torn between her brother and her efforts to gain a foothold in the popular crowd. Elle's life is already out of control when tragedy strikes.

As Elle furiously blogs about her experiences, her increasingly disturbed posts attract a growing audience. When Elle faces a new life-threatening crisis, will someone step in to save her?or will she stand alone?
