All their plans went up in flames when they saw each other again...

The last things accountant Asia Ferrell thought she'd find when she returned home to Spring Valley was a set of doctored books, an angry ex-boyfriend, and stolen weapons from the U.S. military. But that's exactly what she got.

What's a girl to do? Poke her nose into the books, face the tragedy of her past, and join forces with her sexy ex. But can she keep her hands off of him long enough to see how the numbers add up?

Damien Grimaldi, a member of the notorious biker club, Adrian's Riders, is a man on a mission, but his plans to discover how weapons are getting smuggled through the warehouse where he works are challenged when his old flame Asia walks back into his life and steals his heart all over again. Can he stop the bad guys, keep everyone safe, and convince Asia that it's okay to love again? It won't be easy, but he knows he's the only man for the job.

AUTHOR'S NOTE: This is a stand-alone story with a HEA, so no cliff-hangers! Story contains mature themes and language, and is intended for 18+ readers only.
