Wisdom Keys For LIFE Tanya R. Taylor

Unfortunately, many people live their lives trying to be someone else. What they don't understand is that every person is a truly unique individual. In other words: You are uniquely you. If God wanted you to be just like others, He would have made robots instead of human beings. Embrace who you are as a special individual who has something to offer this world that no one else quite has. You can aspire to do good and excel as others have, but recognize also the goodness and talents within yourself. Use what you have been given to follow your own destiny and purpose in life that others can someday admire. Your purpose in life bears YOUR NAME ONLY. It is uniquely yours just as you are uniquely you.
