Secrets. Lies. A summer they'll never forget.

Madison Miller has TRULY sworn off men. After all that she's been through and personally witnessed, there is no point in hoping that there is a "happily ever after" out there. Wanting to start over, Maddy must take a job that stirs up reminders of her past while she still upholds the web of lies she's fabricated.

Logan Abrams is nearly living the dream: a degree at a pristine college right around the corner, a high-paying job dangling at his fingertips, and a gorgeous girl to share it with. But when his summer job falls through and he's MADLY broke and desperate, Logan is forced to take a job as a camp counselor.

When Logan and Maddy meet, the chemistry is DEEPLY palpable. But, Maddy must stick to her guns; she has given up on love. Or has she? And Logan has everything he's ever wanted. Or does he?
