Whole World Blind Michael B Mefford

Jack Carson, a psychiatrist, staggers forward, his life in ruins. He's done his best to guide others, but some of his guidance has gone wrong. Very wrong. A serial killer lost his mother to suicide and was left with an abomination for a father. He blames Carson for turning his life into a living nightmare. Can Carson descend into the black depths of the human condition and come out clean on the other side, or will the darkness prove indelible? Whole World Blind.
