Entanglement Of Fate: Elliott's Register Mysteries: Book 1 Chris Brookes

Register entry: 3987, Sheffield, England, 1912.

When a mute criminal known as 'the Street Arab' is taken into custody, police call on court missionary, Robert Elliott, to try and unravel the enigma. With the help of Mary O' Driscoll, a sharply perceptive nurse, Elliott reveals the prisoner to be Walter Stanford, a man with a blemished past and who is about to change their lives forever.

As Elliott tries to understand the significance of a mysterious note found in a locket on the cell floor, Mary becomes haunted by a series of lucid dreams about Walter's life and a dark harrowing crime. But why have they all been brought together? Is it simply fate? Or could it be strange intervention to bring closure to a chilling past?

One thing is certain...the answers have consequences!

What readers are saying...

"I adored reading this book..."

"Dark and foreboding one minute - so genteel the next - absolutely brilliant!"

"Some days I found it difficult to put down as I was so engrossed."
