The action-packed novel immerses readers in Chinese culture - weaving together elements of traditions (such as the celebration of Mid-Autumn Festival) and mythology (like the animals of the zodiac legend). All Mei knows is her achingly anonymous life as a high schooler and delivery girl for Great Wall Number 1 Best Noodle Shop in New York City's Chinatown Queens. Everything changes when she makes a delivery to an eerily abandoned temple. Even Sam, the aloof new student in school, has a heavy secret of his own. They encounter a curious group of allies and adversaries: a mysterious white dog who appears out of nowhere, her gruff noodle shop boss, a group of monks who know too much, and a persistent gang of motorcycle-riding thugs. Mei and her companions set off on a journey of epic proportions that no one is prepared for - in her world or theirs.
