A Supernatural Threat Ramon Gatchalian

A young attorney finds his ex-girlfriend dead, murdered under mysterious circumstances. To escape the clutches of the law, which has wrongly tagged him as the culprit of the heinous crime, he travels to Vegas at the behest of a ghost claiming to be none other than his spiritual guide. His objective there: to find the killer, who may or may not also be stalking his former lover's twin sister. In a race against time to search for clues to the fiend's whereabouts, Fletcher Dee has to dodge--A relentless crime buster, who has dogged him all the way from the Philippines to bring him to justice; A knife throwing, single-breasted amazon; Meddlesome past lives; And deal with a guardian non-angel, who couldn't manage to be there for him, being distracted himself by a puzzling murder and an ongoing war... A war where heaven and hell have formed an uneasy coalition to combat an incoming force from outside of creation. One with the power of God but infinitely evil. A Supernatural Threat.
