Grudges grind friendships to a halt. Bitterness congests marriages. Neighbors share fences but stifle conversation. Even churches clog up with strained relations brought on by faulty perceptions and misguided intentions. We find ourselves stuck. We can't see beyond the anger and disappointment. We need a fresh perspective--God's perspective. This guide, featuring studies in Joel, the Gospels, Acts, and Romans, will help you clear away regrets, focus on God's priorities, and pursue authentic, grace-filled relationships. Discover the joy that awaits you as you resolve to view your relationships with new eyes.
